Our Lady's Parish dates from 1766 when Father James Walton had the first chapel erected. The work was done by James Gough. This church was replaced by a second in 1819 which, though of faulty construction, endured for almost a century. On May 28, 1911 the cornerstone of the third and present chapel was laid. Leon ^D~~X~~lessez of Washington, D.C. was the architect and the new chapel, of hollow tile and cement construction in the Spanish Mission style, was completed in 1911.
